

Clark County Community Development Department

The Community Development Department has eight different divisions organized around functional areas. The divisions plan, regulate, enforce and support the county codes. Each division keeps a variety of performances and management statistics that help guide process improvements, staffing levels and funding sources.

